

FIRE SIGN

*We all have gaps. Let the sadness flow through you then watch it drip, golden, from your fingers.
Find beauty in the darkness. Take a breath then blow on your embers and feel the fire inside you grow.*

fire_sign's music is a beautiful reaction to the confusing world around them. Patient and slow-building, panoramic in scope, intricate in detail, an offer of shelter from the cold outside.

The pair produce melancholic, complex, lyrically rich music they affectionately term Doomtronica.
